ONE KILLED AND 12 INJURED WHEN D. & R. G. TRAIN NO. 15 IS WRECKED ON BROKEN RAIL BELOW FOUNTAIN

Engineer Hockenberger of Over Crushed Under Cab; Fireman Kriebbs Jumps and Is Fatally Hurt; Three Coaches Derailed; Injured Brought to Springs

Denver and Rio Grande southbound passenger train No. 15, leaving Colorado Springs at 10:30 o'clock, struck a broken rail south of Fountain at 11:15 o'clock last night, resulting in the death of Engineer Frank Hockenberger and fatal injuries to Fireman Kriebbs, both of Denver. Nine of the passengers were injured, and although the engine, the baggage car and a passenger coach left the tracks, none was overturned. The wrecking train and crew were dispatched to the scene of the wreck and the dead engineer and the injured were brought to this city. Dr. Broadway of Fountain was called to aid the injured. A light engine and crew were sent from Colorado Springs this morning at 2:30 o'clock to assist in clearing up the wreckage. All Rio Grande traffic has been transformed to the Santa tracks and the local D. & R. G. officials expect the line to be opened by tonight.

The list of injured:

THOMAS WOODRUFF, mail clerk, Denver, back wrenched and internal injuries.
JOE PADLET, mail clerk, Denver, back wrenched.
MRS. ORA M'KELVEY, Sahatch, Colo.
NORA MILLER, Fort Collins.
TONY FAKUTA, Denver.
ADELA GONZALEZ, Alameda, N. M.
C. F. GOLDBERG, Denver.
MRS. ANNA S. GARIENSWARZ, Denver.
JAMES W. MANLEY, Denver.
J. G. RAINBY, Denver.
C. T. CALLAHAN, Grand Junction.

The injuries to the passengers consisted of severe bruises and cuts. All were severely shaken up.

Engineer Hockenberger was instantly killed, being pinned under his engine, which toppled over on him. He was crushed almost beyond recognition. Charles Kriebbs, the fireman, jumped into a dry ditch, breaking both legs and both arms, and sustaining internal injuries which it was believed would result in his death. Thomas Woodruff, the mail clerk, was in the first baggage coach and was severely injured.

None of the baggage or passenger coaches overturned, but as the train was speeding along at a 60-mile-an-hour gait when it struck the broken rail, the first of five coaches were turned almost sideways to the track. All the passengers who were injured were in the day coach, first of the 10 passenger coaches. The train was well loaded.

The first news that the local office received came from Fountain, after Conductor B. Mue, who was in charge of the train, had tramped through the snow to a ranch house half a mile from the scene of the wreck and telephoned.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY IS OBSERVED IN CAPITAL

President Wilson Attends Exercises and John Barrett Delivers a Notable Address

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—George Washington's birthday anniversary was celebrated today in every department of the capital.

President Wilson attended exercises under the auspices of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Sons of the Revolution and the Sons of the American Revolution, and while he was an interested listener for two hours, he did not make an address. Senator Townsend was the principal speaker there.

In Congress, President Washington's farewell address was read and both houses celebrated the day by working. All the executive departments were closed.

The Women's Peace party had a mass meeting at which John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American union, was the principal speaker.

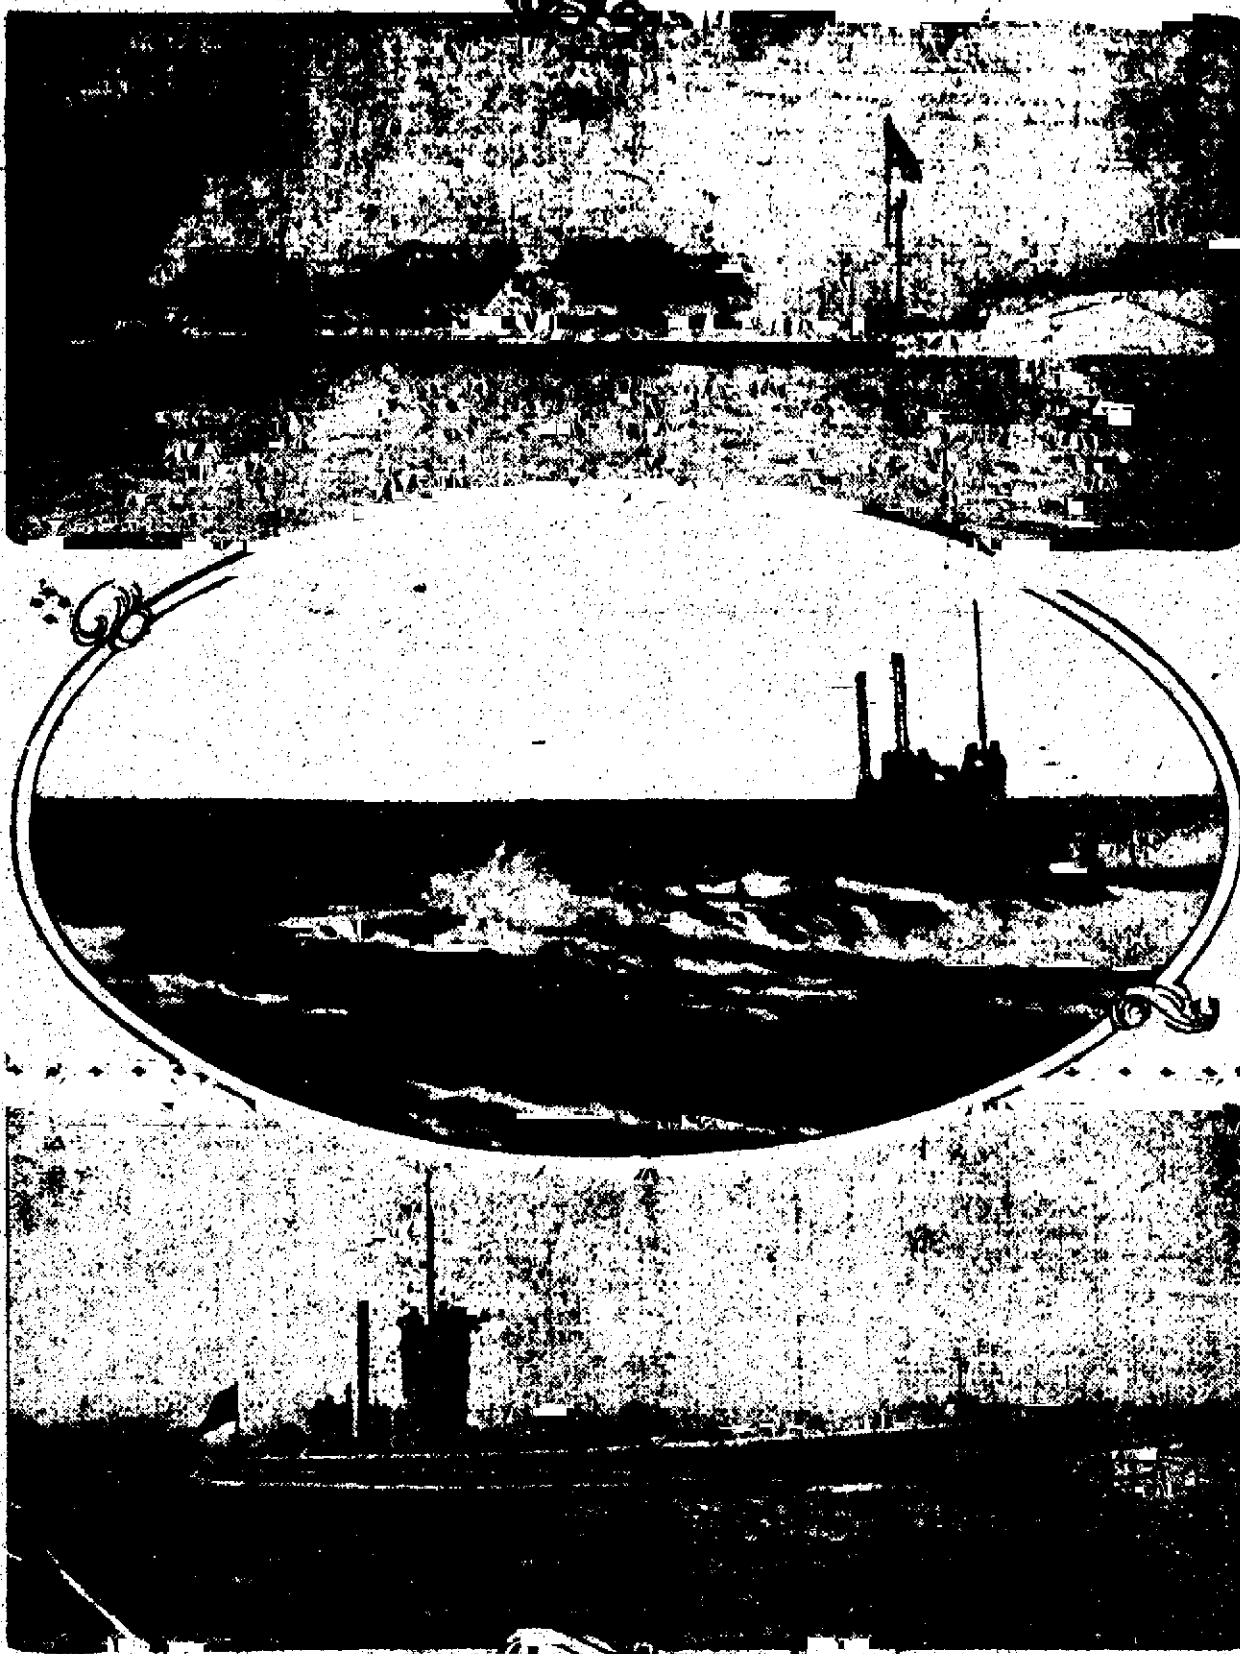

The war has given a new significance and a new strength to Pan-Americanism, he said. "It is demonstrating beyond question that it will mean for the nations of the western hemisphere, which form the Pan-American union, to be the most powerful influence of the future for the realization of worldwide peace and the conservation and advancement of the civilization of the Twentieth century."

On each anniversary it has been reported to me that the premier of Great Britain has long ago, in an informal conversation, remarked that if there had been a Pan-American union in 1812, the American people would have been a European war.

American War Risks Written in London

LONDON, Feb. 22.—(Tuesday)—The Times declares that during the last few days a large amount of insurance has been placed in the London market on property in the United States equal to 10% of the total. 140,800 Captured by Teutonic Allies in Last Month; Czar Loses 193 Guns

Much Anxiety Felt for Safety of 13 American Seamen of Ill-Fated Steamer Evelyn; Allies Make Important Gains in the Western Theater of War

LONDON, Feb. 23.—(Tuesday)—Both Germany and Russia agree that there has been a severe defeat of the Russians in East Prussia, but they differ with reference to the actual importance of the defeat. Whatever has happened to the Russian Tenth army, it has at least been driven back many miles, and one army corps, numbering 40,000, has been badly cut up.

Since the end of January the Teutonic allies, according to official reports from Berlin and Vienna, have captured 140,800 men, including 21 officers. Among these are seven generals. These prisoners include those made in the last German drive of the Russians through East Prussia and in the fighting in the Carpathians. In addition, 193 guns are said to have been taken.

In the western war zone the Zeppelin airships have come into action. One of them has bombed Calais, dropping 10 bombs, which killed five people. A German dirigible, whether the Zeppelin which bombed Calais, or another, has dropped bombs on the railroad running from Dunkirk to Stomer, according to a news agency dispatch.

Allies Make Advance

The official statement issued by the French war office records the bombardment of Rheims by the Germans and the loss of a considerable number of lives. At the same time, it reports advances for the allies in the neighborhood of Soissons, between the Argonne and the Meuse, and in Alsace.

Only 15 men from the American steamer Evelyn, which was sunk off Borkum Island by a German submarine, have been definitely accounted for. These are the captain and 14 seamen, one of whom died from exposure. They are in Bremerhaven, their boat having been picked up by a Dutch pilot ship. Another boat, believed to contain 13 members of the crew of the Evelyn, has not been heard from.

The Scandinavian governments' representatives are holding a conference on Germany's sea war zone proclamation. The Prussian diet has appropriated $25,000,000 to be used in alleviating the sufferings of persons affected by the war.

Submarine Terror of Seas

LONDON, Feb. 22.—The use of modern warfare, the submarine, by means of which Germany has declared she will blockade the British Isles, daily becomes a factor of more and more importance in the great war of Europe with respect to its influence on the policies of the nations engaged in connection with the contraband question, so vital to neutral states.

Almost coincidental with the unofficial reports that Austria proposes to follow the example of her ally by making war on merchant ships in the Adriatic, came the announcement by Premier Asquith in the British house of commons that the much discussed compulsory plan of Great Britain, though still tentative, was much broader in scope than had been previously suggested. In that it was a matter for the consideration of all the allies, and that a joint note concerning it might be expected from the allies.

The statement was likewise made in the house of commons that the British government might deem it necessary to alter its decision whereby cotton, up to the present, has not been classed as contraband. The day passed without news of any additional merchant ship, belligerent or neutral, having fallen a victim to a German submarine, but three small British craft are missing and fears are expressed as to their fate.

German Craft Overdue

Amsterdam reports that two German submarines are overdue at their base, Cuxhaven, but whether they have been sunk is not known. Traffic in the North sea remains somewhat disorganized, and Dutch and Scandinavian sailors are showing a reluctance to go to sea owing to the menace of both submarines and mines. Reports from Copenhagen that traffic between Sweden and England has been temporarily discontinued are not officially confirmed.

The British newspapers print today two conflicting versions of the recent battle in the East. The Germans drive the Russians back over the East Prussian frontier, but naturally they are inclined to accept the Russian version that the Russians fell back in order to fight an effective rearguard action. As against this is the German claim of a complete victory, and a staggering array of captured munitions. It is agreed, however, that Berlin says: "The pursuit has come to an end," and British observers say this means that another costly German rush has failed. It will take the battle of developing on Russian soil to de-

WHILE CROSSING PIKE PEAK PARK PLAN BOOSTED BY MILLS AT BANQUET

250 Chamber of Commerce Men Attend Fifth Annual Banquet at Apacia

Congratulating the people of Colorado Springs on their determination to make Pike Peak a national park, Charles A. Mills of Estes Park, naturalist and writer, last night addressed a gathering of more than 250 people at the fifth annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce at the Apacia hotel. Within the next few days the entire front range of the Rocky mountains will be a national park, was the speaker's prediction.

No one in the crowd had given as much assistance in Colorado Springs in the fight to make Pike Peak a national park as Mr. Mills. He thinks it will not be difficult to have the government make such a park out of Pike Peak.

"World Exposition," he said. "This is a century of scenery," he said. "Suitable places for parks are becoming rare and Colorado Springs has every right to demand one for her wonderful mountains. The people need vacation grounds and in the national parks they get health, ideas and an appreciation of beauty. Pike Peak has all the merits for a park. It is accessible and probably more than a million people have climbed to the summit. The climate could hardly be improved upon and the scenery is wonderful. There are more than 200 varieties of flowers on the mountain and bird life of many kinds."

Pike Peak as a national park will be a wonderful money maker, according to Mr. Mills. Switzerland gets from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 each year from tourists. They have prepared their scenery. If Colorado Springs people do the same and by way of preparation make the mountains into a national park, it will yield a large financial return. It is a strictly business proposition in that way, he said.

Would Win in Congress. This is a particularly good time for the people to bring the matter to the attention of the government, is Mr. Mills' opinion. There was not a single dissenting voice in either house when the Estes Park bill came up for vote. The secretary of the interior has created a superintendent of national parks and the assistant secretary has been ordered to devote his entire time to investigating them. "Colorado Springs people should send a special delegation to Washington to take the matter up, or they should get into touch with the congressman and have a man sent out to look over the proposed ground for the park. The report cannot fail to be favorable," he added.

The banquet was attended by an exceptionally large number of members. Judge R. H. Kinler opened the list of speakers for the evening by giving

SIX ALREADY KILLED IN THE STRUGGLE

Five Members of Posses at Bluff Cut Off From Fellow Officers

DERANGO, Feb. 22.—Five Indians and one white man have been killed, one white man wounded and six Indians taken prisoner in the battle between a band of Pike Indians and a posse seeking the arrest of Tee-Na-Gat, leader of the Indians. This information was received here late tonight by telephone from Bluff. It was said that fighting had been resumed within half a mile of the town and that the "skinning" of hats of Tee-Na-Gat and his followers with flint knives had been begun by the posse. Max Jim, a Ute chief, tried to persuade the whites to surrender, "to save the squaws and children," but was met with refusal.

Telephone advice stated that troops passed through Moab, Utah, shortly after noon today, for Bluff. A report that troops had been asked was denied by Marshal Nebeker.

Five Whites Cut Off. BLUFF, Utah (via Denver, Colo., Feb. 22). Five members of the original posse of 25 led by United States Marshal Aquila Nebeker, in battle here with 52 Pike Indians and about 100 "Pony" band, have become detached from the posse and are isolated in the Bluffs, two miles from Bluff. The Indians have taken refuge in Cottonwood gulch. This information was brought here late today by Thomas M. Burke, a member of the posse.

The five men—Morris Williams, Frank Wheatland, Roy Moore, Dick Lewis and George Houston—are well supplied with ammunition but have been without food or water since the battle opened early Sunday. An effort to locate the men is expected to be made upon the arrival early tomorrow of reinforcements. A band of 20 men are expected from Monticello and Indian Agent Kurch of the Shumrock N. M. agency reported today that 20 Navajo police are on point at Bluff. A snowstorm has been raging for hours.

U. S. IS FACING CRISIS CAUSED BY WAR-TAFT

UPHOLDS ATTITUDE OF PRESIDENT WILSON

Should America Become Involved Every Citizen Must Stand by the Flag

MORRISTOWN, N. J., Feb. 22.—The United States is threatened with a serious crisis of its rights as a neutral by the warring nations in Europe, and in preserving its commerce with those nations is face to face with a crisis in the opinion of former President William H. Taft. In the solution of the crisis, should it arise, no single spirit must be allowed to prevail, Mr. Taft declared. Neither spirit of momentary passion should influence our judgment, he said.

And when the president shall act, the United States, he said, stand by him in the hour of crisis. In this determination we may be sure that all will join, no matter what their previous views, no matter what their European origin. All will forget their difference in self-interest, loyalty to our common flag and our common country.

Mr. Taft's reference to the situation confronting the United States, was made at the conclusion of an address delivered today before the Washington association of New Jersey. Quoting from a reservation in the treaty of Algiers, proclaimed in 1801, and entered into by the United States and 11 European nations, including most of those now at war, Mr. Taft said:

"Our interest in the present war, therefore, under the conditions that exist, should be limited as far forth in this respect as to prevent and interfere with the commerce of the United States with the belligerents, to the extent as to life, liberty and property of our citizens residing or trading in their countries, and to the aid by our friendly offices and efforts in bringing those countries to peace."

Our efforts for peace, he continued, have been made as complete as possible, but the present has created a situation which calls for a new method of mediation between the powers, and they have not been accepted.

In presenting the commerce of the United States with the belligerents, however, we are face to face with a crisis. We are threatened with a serious crisis of our rights as a neutral in the action of the belligerent countries. What certainly is an innovation upon previous rules in respect to neutral commerce and contraband of war has been initiated by belligerents on both sides. The planting of mines in the open sea and the use of

PRES. WILSON NAMES TRADE COMMISSION

Longest Appointments Opposition Expected

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—President Wilson today, five months after the enactment of the federal commission law, sent to the senate the names of the five men nominated to constitute that committee. Whether the nominations can be confirmed by March 4 was regarded as problematical.

The Democrats named by the president are Joseph E. Davies of Madison, Wis., now corporation commissioner, to serve seven years; Edward N. Hurley of Chicago, Ill., for six years, and William J. Harris of California, for five years. The other nominees are Will H. Barry of Seattle, Wash., a progressive Republican, to sit for four years, and George Rublee of Colorado, N. H., regarded as a Progressive, for three years.

Senator Newlands, chairman of the interstate commerce committee, to which the nominations were referred, said tonight he would call the committee tomorrow and he thought the confirmation of all the nominees would be recommended within a few days.

Opposition Anticipated. Opposition to some of the nominations, however, is expected at the White house. Senator Sherman of Illinois recently attacked Mr. Hurley as one of the men who "lobbied" in Washington while the tariff bill was pending, and some Republicans are said to be dissatisfied because no regular Republican was named.

The broad purpose of the commission as provided in the act is to protect persons, partnerships or corporations, except banks and common carriers, from using unfair methods of competition in commerce. Whenever the commission has reason to believe that any unfair method of competition is being used it is authorized to issue a complaint against the suspected offender and fix a time for a hearing. Individuals or corporations so cited are given the right to show cause why an order should not be issued requiring cessation of alleged violations. If such orders eventually are issued and violations complained of are not stopped, the commission may apply to the circuit court of appeals of the United States for enforcement of its orders. Judgment of the court would be subject to review by the supreme court.

Davies to Be Chairman. Mr. Davies is understood to be named chairman of the commission. He was the first on the list of nominations sent to the senate by the president and received the longest term. Because of his experience in conducting the bureau of corporations, the president is understood to deem him well qualified to head the new commission.

George I. Harvard of New Jersey, who was seriously considered by the president for one of the places on the commission, is likely to be made its co-chairman. It was said tonight. The position gave the same title as that provided for chairmen of the commission.

FIJI ISLANDERS PROVE

VALUABLE SOLDIERS

LONDON, Feb. 22.—The Fiji island volunteers proved a sad disappointment to the crowd that lined the way to the war office to see the contingent march by. It was expected that they would rival the Indian Sikhs and Gurkhas, the Algerian Turcos or the Senegalese for picturesque. But instead the giant, coffee-colored islanders with skirts of tapa cloth and necklaces of beads, with perhaps modern rifles substituted for war clubs and spears; the crowd saw a band of tall, well-tanned British colonials, uniformed in khaki-colored shirts, riding breeches with puttees and gray slouch hats turned up on one side. They were 60 in number, of whom a quarter were born in the Fiji and the others in Australia. They have paid their own way to England, sailing from the islands to Vancouver and crossing Canada to embark for the mother country.

So advanced is the military training of the Fiji volunteers that they will be sent to France next month. They must first be outfitted for the cold weather, however, to which they are not quite sensitive.

OXFORD, Feb. 22.—The winter term at Oxford university, known as "Lent," or "Hilary," was never more lenten or less hilarious.

There were 1,200 graduates left for the autumn term but now there are only 1,000. No new students arrive for the "upperclass" year. In the public the army officers as fast as they are ready. Of the various colleges which go to make up the composite whole which is known as the "university," Corpus Christi college is the nearest empty, having only 25 students left. St. Edmund hall has 25, and Trinity college 25.

A considerable proportion of the students still in attendance are the Rhodes scholars and other men from foreign countries, particularly the Americans. They practically monopolize whatever is left of college sports, and they also take the majority of the scholastic honors.

INDIAN COLONIZATION SCHEME IS PROPOSED

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 22.—A colonization scheme, discussed at today's meeting of the Northwestern Federation of American Indians, contemplates the formation of a land company, stock to be sold only to Indians that agree to live on the company land and engage in a cooperative plan of poultry raising and agriculture. To help finance the company, claims would be made on the federal government for money said to be due to the Indians from the sale of timber on their lands.

GERMANS APPROPRIATE CAPTURED FRENCH HORSES

BERLIN, Feb. 22.—Three hundred Ardennes horses taken by the German army in the agricultural districts of France are to be put up for sale by auction in Berlin, with the view of making them the basis for a new breed of horses for agricultural purposes in Germany. The government circular declares that they are the most easily maintained and least subject to severe changes of climate of any breed known. The section is also mentioned as a number of Belgian horses and a few English farm ponies, which were captured in France.
